LEARNING GUIDE

IF-CLAUSES

Learn and practise on your own - being able to express condition in different situations

Learning Goal

Learn how to use the website British Council Learning Teens as a tool on a self-learning process focused on the grammatical issue of If-clauses.

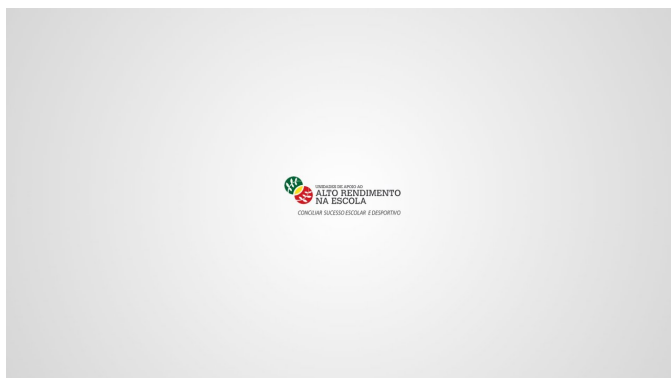

Introduction

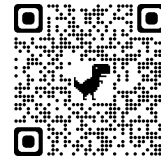

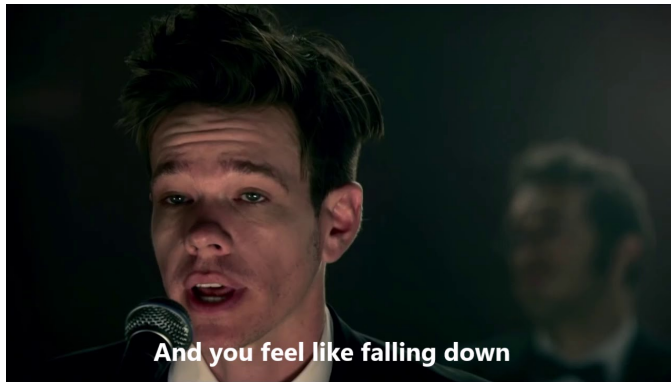

During this week you will have the chance to get acquainted with the British Council Learning Teens webpage, as a tool which will help practise your English on an autonomous way.

This week we will focus on the If clauses.

Learning Activities

- 1 Watch the tutorial on the British Council Learning Teens webpage and to the excerpts of the songs to recognise the several if clause types:

Question 1

Identify the different If clause types in the video and write it down in the Google Classroom assignment – If clauses.

Question 2

Solve the exercises suggested and check your answers, use the British Council Learning Teens page.

Question 3

Go to page 55 of your textbook A taste for English, and solve the exercises, sending it to the Google Classroom assignment – If clauses.

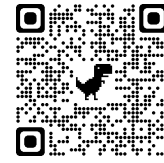

Travel Diary

Write a page of a travel diary using If clauses and based on the week you are away from school. Check the following suggestion for building a Travel Diary. But you just have to share a page with us, on Google Classroom.
